

Amherst Village Map

The Amherst village area – an important town resource and the focus of this strategic planning effort – sits at the center of the Amherst historic district, which covers 120 buildings and 2,600 acres, making it the largest historic district in New Hampshire.

